27	Defendants' counsel contend that the copy of the Motion for Preliminary 28	Injunction sent to the Attorney General's Office was not received via the mail (and that a copy was not received until the afternoon of October 15, 2019 from the 1 Financial Institutions Division) notwithstanding Plaintiffs' contention that the 2 motion was timely and properly served. Given this discrepancy, instead of engaging 3 in motion practice on the issue, the parties thought it most efficient to agree on a 4 reasonable amount of time to respond and reply to the Motion for Preliminary 5 Injunction. Avoiding such motion practice will allow the parties to focus on the 6 Motion for Preliminary Injunction and submit more timely briefing with regard 7 thereto in accordance with the deadlines set forth below. Based thereon, the parties 8 submit this revised stipulation. 9 Defendants' time to respond to the Request for Preliminary Injunction will be 10 extended to November 12, 2019; and 11 Plaintiff's' time to Reply in Support of Request for Preliminary Injunction will 12 be extended to December 2, 2019. 13 14 AARON D.
